

Sarah Philinda Abell

( - 8 Feb 1885)

---

The Evening Star, February 9, 1885

Death of Miss S.P. Abell

The large circle of friends of Miss S.P. Abell will be saddened to hear of her death, which occurred yesterday at Uniontown. Miss Abell was in the 72d year of her age. She was formerly a teacher in the public schools here, and was a life-long advocate of temperance. The funeral will take place today at 8:30 o'clock from her late residence.

The Evening Star, February 10, 1885

Miss Abell's Will

The will of Sarah Philinda Abell, died yesterday, leaves to her three nieces, Eveline, Ida Louise and Edith Abell, her house and three lots appertaining thereto in Uniontown, D.C., also United States four per cent, bonds amounting to $1,700; to her grandniece, Alice Edith Abell, her gold watch and all her paintings and works of art; to her friends and neighbors, her household furniture and personal effects, to be distributed in accordance with the desire expressed before her death. Charles Collin Abell is named as executor.