Mrs. Estelle H. Adams Dies After Operation

Mrs. Estelle Holtzman Adams, native Washingtonian and an active worker in local Catholic charities, died at Emergency Hospital today following an operation Saturday morning. She was the wife of Byron S. Adams, proprietor of a printing shop at 512 Eleventh street.

Mrs. Adams had been in poor health for three years, but was taken to the hospital only a few days ago.

She was a member of the Sacred Heart Church and on the board of the Catholic Home for Aged Ladies.

Funeral services will be held at the Sacred Heart Church Wednesday morning with requiem mass at 10 o'clock. Mgr. Gavin will officiate.

Mrs. Adams, who lived at 1801 Park road is survived by her husband, a daughter, Mrs. J. Craig King and three grandchildren. She was a sister of the late Robert O. Holtzman.
