Funeral of Norval W. Adams

Funeral services for Norval Wilson Adams, a veteran of the civil war, who died Wednesday at the home of Dr. J. Lee Adams, jr., Almas Heights, Takoma Park, after an illness of only three days, were held privately in Lee's chapel yesterday afternoon, Rev. Thomas C. Clarke, pastor of the Takoma Park Presbyterian Church, officiating. Interment was in Congressional cemetery. Mr. Adams was sixty years old and was in the city on a visit when he died. He had resided for many years in Philadelphia.
