Robert C. Adams Dead

Union Veteran of the Civil War, Aged Sixty

The funeral of Robt. C. Adams, who died Saturday, January 20, took place yesterday from the family residence, 139 D street northeast. Mr. Adams was born in Washington January 19, 1846, and in 1862 enlisted in Battery A, 2d Artillery, at the age of sixteen years, serving until 1865, under Gen. Hunt, and Gen. Wm. T. Barry, receiving his discharge at Fort Monroe, Va., September 29, 1865.

At the time of his death Mr. Adams had made application for membership in Roosevelt Garrison, No. 74, Army and Navy Union, and would have been mustered in by that body yesterday had he lived. Commander Gordon of Roosevelt Garrison was notified of his death Sunday afternoon, and he issued an order to all available members to be present at the funeral.

The pallbearers consisted of Commander J.J. Gordon, C.H. Houch, Prof. J.A. Joyce of Roosevelt Garrison, G.H. Rollings of Gen. Jos. Wheeler Garrison of Union Hill, N.J.; Robert Dunn and Henry Bradford.

Mr. Adams was married in 1881 to Miss Katherine Donnelly of this city, and leaves a wife and two children, Mrs. Celia Barker and Miss Methia Adams, both of this city.

Interment was at Congressional Cemetery.
