

Martin Richard Alexander (- 10 May 1972)

The Washington Post, May 11, 1972, p. B6

Martin R. Alexander, Former D.C. Worker

Martin Richard Alexander, 60, former employee of the water department operations division of the D.C. Sanitary engineering department, died Wednesday at his home, 12802 Atherton Dr., Wheaton.

Mr. Alexander, who was born in Washington and was a life-long resident of the area, served in the U.S. Air Force during World War II in the European theater. He retired from the city sanitary department about five years ago.

He is survived by his wife, Anne, of the home.