

George R. Allen (- 12 Mar 1904)

The Evening Star, March 14, 1904

Funeral of George Allan

The funeral of George Allan, whose death occurred Saturday evening, took place this afternoon at 3 o'clock from his late residence, 124 6th street northeast. The interment was made in Congressional cemetery. Mr. Allan was forty-five years of age and was unmarried. He came to Washington eighteen years ago, and immediately secured a position as compositor with the Gibson Brothers, which he held at the time of his death.