Mrs. E.A. Altemus Dead

Had Been a Resident of Washington For More Than Fifty Years

Mrs. Elizabeth A. Altemus, seventy one years old, who had been a resident of this city for more than fifty years, and for many years an employe of the pension office, died yesterday morning at her home, 1209 New Jersey avenue. Pending the arrival of her daughter from the south, funeral services have not been arranged.

Mrs. Altemus was a native of Philadelphia. She moved to this city fifty years ago and for many years was employed in the certificate division of the pension office. Resigning her position about three years ago, Mrs. Altemus made her home in Baton Rouge, La., with her daughter, Mrs. T.A. Schaffer. Last year, however, she returned to Washington.

Besides her daughter, she is survived by a sister-in-law, Miss A.A. Altemus; a sister, Mrs. W.L. Carpenter, and a brother, Gen. E.Z. Steever.
