

Robert L. Amery

(- 20 Jul 1900)

Amery. On July 20, 1900, at 6:40 p.m., Robert L., beloved husband of Emma D. Amery, in his 64th year. Funeral Sunday, July 22, at 3:30 p.m. from his late residence, 1224 Pennsylvania avenue southeast.

The Evening Star, July 21, 1900, p. 12

Death of R.L. Amery

Robert L. Amery died last evening at his residence, 1224 Pennsylvania avenue southeast, after an illness of three weeks. The deceased was well known in Georgetown, and prominently identified with the Masonic fraternities of the West End. He was sentinel of Potomac Commandery, No. 3, at the time of his death, and was also a member of Potomac Lodge, No. 5; Potomac Royal Arch Chapter, No. 8, and of the Knights of Pythias. The funeral will be held tomorrow, the interment being with Masonic honors, Worshipful Master F.W. Daw being in charge. The interment will be at Congressional cemetery.

Emma D. Amery