

George Christian Ames

(- 7 Feb 1870)

Ames. At Brooklyn, New York, Monday the 7th, Mr. George Christian Ames of this city, aged 65 years.

The Evening Star, Feb. 9, 1870

We notice among the funeral notices the death of an old citizen of Washington, who had been long and favorably known in this community -- Mr. George C. Ames. Mr. Ames was a native of Accomac county, Va. and came to Washington 25 years ago. He closed a life of usefulness and integrity at the rectory of the Church of the Holy Trinity, Brooklyn after a year of great suffering by painful disease. He was the father of the Rev. Alfred Ames, the late beloved pastor of Wesley Chapel and father-in-law to Rev. Dr. Hall, late of the Church of Epiphany. His remains will be taken from the latter church to the Congressional Cemetery tomorrow.
