

Jennie Appler ( - 15 Jun 1917)

---

Appler. Suddenly on Friday, June 15, 1917 at her residence, 140 Kentucky avenue southeast, Jennie, beloved daughter of Virginia and the late Jesse Hyde Appler. Funeral to be held from her late residence, Monday, June 18 at 2 p.m. Relatives and friends invited.

The Evening Star, June 15, 1917, p.. 11

Miss Appler Found Dead

Long-time Employe of The Star Victim of Apoplexy

Miss Jennie Appler, thirty-nine years old, resident of the District, who had been connected with The Star as a copyholder for twenty years, was found dead in bed about 11:30 o'clock this morning at her residence, 140 Kentucky avenue southeast. Death was due to a stroke of apoplexy.

Miss Appler had complained of being ill Wednesday and had been excused from her duties. She had improved since then, however, and had expected to return to wrk this morning. She was found dead by her mother, Mrs. J.H. Appler.

Miss Appler was a graduate of Central High School of this city. Funeral arrangements have not yet been completed.

Besides her mother, Miss Appler is survived by a sister, Mrs. Clara B. Hollinger..