

James E. Arnold, Jr. (1859 - 6 Jul 1913)

Arnold. Suddenly on Sunday morning, July 6, 1913, James E. Arnold, beloved husband of Ella Arnold. Funeral from his late residence, 413 1/2 6th street s.e. at 3 p.m., Tuesday, July 8. Relatives and friends invited.

The Evening Star, July 7, 1913, p. 7

Found Dead In Bed

J.E. Arnold Was Assistant Market Master for a Number of Years

James E. Arnold, fifty-four years old, was found dead in bed at his home, 418 1/2 6th street southeast, yesterday morning. His death was due to an attack of apoplexy. He leaves a wife and daughter.

Mr. Arnold was a native of this city and had resided in Southeast Washington all his life. He served as a member of the police force from August 29, 1894, until April 1, 1898. Later he was District marketmaster.

He served as assistant marketmaster in the Eastern market a number of years, and later was promoted and put in charge at the wholesale market at 12th and B streets. At the time of his death he was employed in a department store.