

Jessie Ashby ( - 13 Feb 1914)

---

The Evening Star, February 14, 1914, p. 14

Old Wound Causes Death

Jesse Ashby, Shot Four Months Ago, Succumbs to Injury

Shot four months ago at Gulvey, King George county, Va., Jesse Ashby, twenty-four years old, of 48 E street southeast died last night at Providence Hospital.

Ashby was brought to Washington, October 10, following the shooting. The man who shot him, it is stated was later tried and fined $25. Ashby had gone to Gulvey to locate on a farm which had been leased by his mother for three years. He had been there some time before the shooting. A quarrel is said to have taken place, and the other man shot Ashby in the right leg.

For a time his condition improved while in the hospital, but later it took a change and resulted in his death. The Washington police have notified the Virginia authorities of Ashby's death.

Funeral services will be held Monday afternoon at the home of W.F. Ware, 1550 3d street northwest. Mr. Ware is a half-brother of the deceased. Interment will be in Rock Creek Cemetery.