Funerals

The funeral of Mr. Joseph Atkins took place from the residence of his brother-in-law, on Seventh street east, between L and M streets south, Rev. Mr. Holliday, of the East Washington M.E. church, preaching the funeral sermon. The remains were interred in the Congressional cemetery by Onondaga Tribe, No. 10, I.O.R.M., and Potomac Circle, B.U. [H.F.] C.A., No. 2, headed by the National brass band. Deceased was formerly a mechanic in the Washington Navy Yard; but, work running out there, he went to Philadelphia, where he died a few days ago.
