

Ada Auguste

( - 24 Jan 1875)

---

The Evening Star, January 25, 1875

Sudden Deaths

A daughter of Benjamin August, a messenger in the Navy department, living on L, between 14th and 15th streets, died with diphtheria yesterday. She was in the sixteenth year of her age, and was well to all appearances on Saturday, and retired in perfect health, but at an early hour yesterday morning was taken with a choking spell, from which she died.