

Capt. Joseph Bailey (- 1 Apr 1860)

The Evening Star, April 19, 1860, p. 2

Personal

The Body of Capt. Joseph Bailey, who was drowned on the first day of April at the bluff below Alexandria, has not been found. He had on casinet pants and coat, and a black cravat; and had $18 in his pocket. I will give $50 for the recovery of his body.

Martha Bailey

[Maryland and Virginia papers please copy]

The Evening Star, April 23, 1860

The Body of Capt. Baily Found

The Alexandria Gazette of this morning says:

"The body of a drowned man was found on the shore of the Potomac river near Fort Washington, on Tuesday last, and a jury of inquest held over it. The jury rendered a verdict of accidental drowning. There was found in the pockets on the deceased the sum of sixteen dollars and one cent, and a paper indicating his name to be Joseph Bailey.