

Mason N. Bassett (- 14 Jul 1898)

Bassett. On Thursday, July 14, 1898, at 5:45 p.m., Mason Noble Bassett, in the 65th year of his age. Funeral on Saturday, July 16 at 3 o'clock p.m., from his late residence, No. 120 6th street northeast. Interment private.

The Evening Star, July 15, 1898

Death of Mason N. Bassett

Was a Brother of the Late Capt. Isaac Bassett

Mason Noble Bassett, brother of the late Captain Isaac Bassett, who was for 69 years an employee of the United States Senate, died yesterday afternoon at the residence of his sister, Mrs. B.T. Thorne, No. 120 6th street northeast, after a lingering illness. Mr. Bassett was the last survivor of the male members of the Bassett family, one of the oldest of the city. Lieutenant Simeon Bassett of the United States navy, who died abroad while on a cruise, was the first to break the large circle. Sidney Bassett, David Bassett, Robert T. Bassett, Captain Isaac Bassett and now Mason Noble Bassett followed at intervals of a few years. The only surviving member of this large family is Mrs. Thorne, the sister with whom the last of the brothers, Mason Noble, has made his home ever since the death of his parents. Mr. Bassett never married. His funeral will take place from the residence of Mrs. Thorne Saturday at 3 p.m.