

Charles Henry Beavers (- 7 Oct 1945)

Beavers, Charles Henry. On Sunday, October 7, 1945, at his home, 4609 West Virginia ave., Bethesda, Md., Charles Henry Beavers, beloved husband of Hannah H. Beavers. Funeral services at the Bethesda-Chevy Chase funeral home of Wm. Reuben Pumphrey Wednesday, October 10, at 11:30 a.m. Interment Congressional Cemetery.

The Evening Star, October 9, 1945, p. A12

Charles Beavers' Funeral Set for Tomorrow

Funeral services for Charles Henry Beavers, 76, who died Sunday at his home, 4609 West Virginia avenue, Bethesda, will be held at 11:30 a.m. tomorrow at William Reuben Pumphrey funeral home in Bethesda. Burial will be in Congressional Cemetery.

Mr. Beavers, formerly a motorman with the Capital Transit Co., retired in September, 1941, after 42 years' service. He was born in Fairfax, Va., and lived in Washington 28 years before moving to Maryland 22 years ago.

He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Hannah H. Town Beavers, a native of Baltimore, and five brothers, James W. Beavers, Capital Heights, Md.; Thomas E. Beavers, Maryland Park, Md.; Everett J. Beavers, Mount Rainier, Md.; Joseph F. Beavers, Woodbridge, Va., and Rufus C. Beavers, Bethesda.