

Harry Lee Berry (1863 - 1 Dec 1926)

Berry. Wednesday, December 1, 1926, at 4:30 a.m., Harry Lee, beloved husband of Margaret C. Berry (nee Spalding). Funeral services will be held Saturday, December 4, at 2 p.m., at Ryland Chapel, 10th and D sts. s.w. Relatives and friends invited. Members of Federal Lodge No. 1, F.A.A.M., please notice.

The Evening Star, December 2, 1926, p. 5

Harry L. Berry Dies

Retired Pennsylvania Railroad Employe Was Ill Long Time

Harry L. Berry, 63 years old, for years an employe of the Pennsylvania Railroad, died at his residence, in the Virginia Apartments, 308 Seventh street southwest, yesterday after a long illness. He retired in 1918, due to illness, after being employed as baggage master 14 years. He first entered the service of the company in 1890.

Mr. Berry was for many years a resident of Southwest Washington. He belonged to Federal Lodge, No. 1, F.A.A.M., which will conduct Masonic services at the time of burial.

He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Margaret Berry, and a son, Harry L. Berry, jr.