

William Shock Boteler

(16 Aug 1890 – 28 Mar 1961)

---

Boteler, William Shock. On Tuesday, March 28, 1961, in Atlanta, Ga., William Shock Boteler, husband of Caroline Boteler of Atlanta, Ga., and father of William S. Boteler, jr., of Bethesda, Md. Services will be held at Gawler's Chapel, 1756 Pa. ave. nw. (courtesy parking opposite), interment private. Congressional Cemetery.

The Evening Star, March 29, 1961, p. B4

W.S. Boteler, 70, District Native, Realty Dealer

William S. Boteler, 70, a native of Washington, died yesterday in Atlanta, Ga., after a long illness.

Born and reared here, Mr. Boteler was a graduate of the old Central High School and of George Washington University Law School. He was in the real estate business before moving to Atlanta in 1942.

Mr. Boteler worked with the Public Housing Administration in Atlanta from 1942 until his retirement last September.

Besides his wife Caroline, of Atlanta, Mr. Boteler leaves a son, William S., jr., of 10123 Ashburton lane, Bethesda, and two grandchildren.

Funeral services will be held in Atlanta tomorrow with burial in Congressional Cemetery here Friday. Gawler's Funeral Home, 1756 Pennsylvania avenue N.W., is handling arrangements.

The Washington Post, March 30, 1961, p. B4

William S. Boteler, 70; Retired Official of PHA

William Shock Boteler, 70, a retired official of the Public Housing Administration in Atlanta, and a former resident of Washington, died Tuesday in Atlanta after a long illness.

Mr. Boteler was a native of Washington and was a graduate of the George Washington University Law School. He was in the real estate business before moving to Atlanta in 1942.

He was a great grandson of Commodore William Henry Shock, chief engineer for the Navy during the 1880s.

Mr. Boteler is survived by his wife, Caroline, of Atlanta, and a son, William S. Boteler Jr., of 10123 Ashburton la., Bethesda.