Death of W.B. Brownell

Inspector Grant, chief of detectives, has received a telegram from the coroner at Misslintown, Pa., stating that William B. Brownell of this city was dead there. The police learned at 1226 7th street northwest, where Brownell is said to have resided, that he left there Tuesday. The cause of his death is not known. The coroner in the Pennsylvania town was asked to communicate with Mr. Brownell's sister, Mrs. Mary McIntosh of Ballston Spur, N.Y.
