Grant Burroughs Dead; Was Patent Attorney

Former Prominent Athlete Was 70 Years Old -- Last Rites Set Tomorrow

Grant Burroughs, 70, of 206 Maryland avenue northeast, for many years a patent attorney here, died yesterday in Garfield Hospital after an illness of about four weeks.

For the last several years he had worked with the law firm of Glascock, Downing and Seebold.

As a young man, Mr. Burroughs was a prominent athlete with the old Columbia Athletic Club, being an oarsman and football player. A native of this city, he was educated in the public schools here and at the old Columbian University, now George Washington University, where he received his law degree. He leaves no immediate relatives.

Funeral services will be held at 10 a.m. tomorrow in Western Presbyterian Church. Burial will be private.
