Another Old Citizen Departed

Mr. William Burroughs, another of our old inhabitants, died at an early hour this morning, at his late residence 13-1/2 street, South Washington. Mr. Burroughs was a native of St. Mary's county, Maryland, and over seventy years of age, the last twenty-seven of which he resided in South Washington, where he was universally respected. For many years he followed the carpentering business, but for the past few years has been filling the position of wood measurer for the river district.
