

Louise K. Camp

( 1843 - 30 Sep 1927)

---

Camp. On Friday, September 30, 1927, at the New York Hospital, Louise Keller, widow of Capt. and Brevet Lieut. Col. Elisha K. Camp, U.S. Army, and mother of Elisha K. Camp. Funeral services will be held at chapel at St. George's Church, Stuyvesant Square, Saturday, October 1. Interment in the Congressional Cemetery, Washington, D.C., at the convenience of the family.

The Washington Post, October 3, 1927, p. 18

Rites For Mrs. Louise K. Camp

Widow of Mexican War Veteran to be Buried Here Today

Burial services for Mrs. Louise Keller Camp, 85 years old, a former resident of this city and once leader of musical activities of the Church of the Epiphany, will be held in Congressional Cemetery at 11 o'clock today. Rev. G.G. Lier, of the Church of the Epiphany, will conduct the services.

Mrs. Camp was born in this city in 1843 and was the widow of Lieut. Col. Elisha E. Camp, who saw service in the Mexican and Civil Wars.

Mrs. Camp made her home in this city until about twelve years ago, when she moved to New Jersey, to live with her son, Elisha K. Camp, an attorney, of New York, who survives her. The grandson Elisha Camp, is studying law at Harvard University.