Lillian E. Carpenter

Lillian Evans Carpenter, a teacher for three decades in the District schools, died of a heart attack Thursday in Atlantic City, N.J.

She retired from the faculty of McKinley High School in 1946. Her home was at 701 Maryland ave. ne.

Miss Carpenter was a native of Washington. She graduated from Eastern High School and, in 1914, from the Washington Normal School. She received her B.A. Degree and teaching diploma from George Washington University, where she won the Thomas F. Walsh medal in history.

She taught elementary grades at the Langley, Peabody and Wallace Schools. Shortly after Hine Junior High School was opened, she went there to teach English and history.

In 1928 she joined the English department at McKinley High School, and remained there 18 years.

Miss Carpenter belonged to the American Association of University Women. She was also a member of St. Mark's Episcopal Church, 3d and A sts. se.

She is survived by a sister, Edna Maddox, 816 E st. ne.

Services will be held at 11:30 a.m. Monday in the Lee funeral home, Massachusetts ave. and 4th st. ne., and burial will be in Congressional Cemetery.
