Woman Takes Own Life In Gas-Filled Kitchen

Locking herself in the kitchen of her home late yesterday, Mrs. Ruth P. Connors, 35 years old, of 1702 Twenty-fifth street southeast, turned on the jets of a gas stove and ended her life.

The body was found in the gas-filled chamber about one hour later when Mr. and Mrs. John Weil of Arlington, friends of the family, became alarmed when they received no response to a telephone call and went to the house.
