Mabel Cook Buried

Funeral Services for Girl Who Was Burned to Death

Funeral for services for Mabel Cook, who died at Children's Hospital as a result of burns she received at her home, 215 10th street southwest, Sunday morning, were held this morning in the chapel of the undertaking establishment of J. William Lee, 332 Pennsylvania avenue northwest.

Norman Cook, the father, who was paroled from the work house at Occoquan, Va., in order that he might see his child before she died, attended the funeral. Rev. Richard P. Williams, pastor of Trinity Church officiated. The interment was in Congressional cemetery.
