

Samuel C. Cook

(- 24 Feb 1922)

The Evening Star, February 24, 1922, p. 4

Drops Dead In Street

Samuel Joseph Cook, fifty-two years old, a brass finisher, dropped dead at 30th and K streets about 10 o'clock this morning. Several persons on the street near him told the police they noticed he had the appearance of being taken suddenly ill. He sat down and died before the police could take him to Georgetown University Hospital. Cook resided at 1352 4-1/2 street southwest and police were told that he was looking for work when he was stricken.