

Laura Virginia Coyle

(- 20 Mar 1882)

Coyle. At 10 o'clock, Monday evening, March 20, 1882, Laura V., youngest daughter of the late Andrew Coyle.

The Evening Star, April 1, 1882

Wills Filed

Yesterday in the Probate Court several wills were filled. The will of Laura Virginia Coyle makes the following bequests: To her sister, Mrs. Maria H. Speer, for life, her house on E street, between 2d and 3d streets. At her death it goes to Mrs. Leonidas Coyle and Mrs. Maria Andrews as joint owners, and at Mrs. Coyle's death the property is to become Mrs. Andrews' solely. Mrs. Speer is constituted sole executrix, and each heir as she comes into the property is to become her own executrix. Mrs. Coyle also left another will bequeathing a bond of $1,200 to her relations, except $200 of the proceeds to the Central Presbyterian church and $100 to the Rev A.W. Pitzer.