Miss Mary S. Culley Funeral Services Held

Funeral services for Miss Mary S. Culley, Washington resident for 50 years, were held yesterday afternoon at the Lee funeral home, Fourth street and Massachusetts avenue N.E., followed by burial in the Congressional Cemetery.

Miss Culley died at the home of her sister, Mrs. L.K. Sunderlin, of 3716 Fulton street N.W., after a long illness.

Born in Norfolk, Va., she was the daughter of the late Joseph and Mrs. Naomi V. Culley and a descendant of the Armisteads, an old Virginia family. She was a member of the Daughters of the American Revolution, the Republican Club and the Excelsior Literary Club of Washington.

Mrs. Sunderlin is her only survivor.
