A Sad Death

Mr. Gilbert Francis Dawson, a son of the late Mr. George F. Dawson, a prominent resident of East Washington, died Monday evening at his residence, 22 Seventh street southeast in the 22d year of his age. He had been married about 6 months and beside his young widow, his mother and two sisters survive him. Mr. Dawson was for many years a chorister of St. James Protestant Episcopal Church and the funeral will take place from there tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock.
