Death of a Washington

Mr. William G. Deale, long a resident of this city, but of late years in Baltimore, died in the latter city on Friday last, at the advanced age of 65 years. Mr. Deale was a very prominent member of the Methodist Episcopal Church, and sustained an important relation to the congregation of Wesley Chapel, in this city, during a long course of years. He was connected for a number of years with the corporation as lumber measurer, and held a high character for integrity. Mr. Deale will be recollected as one of the building committee of Odd Fellows' Hall, 7th street, and acted as supervisor of that work.
