Leidy Depue, 96, Mason 72 Years

Leidy S. Depue, 96, a Washington native and life-long area resident who owned a large fruit farm in Harpers Ferry, died last night at the Fort Ward Convalescent Home after a long illness.

Mr. Depue owned the farm for 60 years, spending his summers there. Before buying it, he ran a flour and feed store in Washington.

He was a life-long member of Westminster Presbyterian Church and a member of the Lafayette Masonic Lodge No. 19 for 72 years.

Mr. Depue leaves a daughter, Mrs. Marguerite Miller, with whom he had lived for the past 20 years, of 1808 North Jackson street, Arlington.

Services will be at 11:45 a.m. Saturday at the Ives Funeral Home, 2847 Wilson boulevard, Arlington, with burial in Congressional Cemetery.
