

James W. Dorsett

(- 8 Jan 1857)

The Evening Star, January 8, 1857

Sudden Death—

This morning, Mr. James W. Dorsett, a citizen of the First Ward of this city, aged about 30 years, a son of Fielder Dorsett, watchman in the War Department fell dead on G street, as is supposed from a disease of the heart. A coroner's jury set upon the case. We could not learn what their verdict was ere we went to press. The deceased, who was a respectable and worthy man, leaves a widow and four children.