Anacostia and Vicinity

The funeral of Richard F. Dougherty, whose death occurred Sunday at his residence, No. 10 Nicholson street, Twining City, aged 31 years, was held yesterday afternoon from his late home. Rev. Dr. T. Boyd Gay, the pastor of the Garden Memorial Presbyterian Church, Minnesota avenue, officiated, and the remains were interred in Congressional cemetery. Mr. Dougherty had long been a telegraph operator in the employ of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company. His wife and four children survive him.
