Dies In Ninetieth Year

Miss Douglas Formerly Kept Private School Here

Miss Mary Conway Douglas died at her residence, 1027 12th street northwest, Saturday. She was the daughter of the late Archibald Orme Douglas and Priscilla Pollard Douglas, and was born in Alexandria, March 14, 1833. Washington had been her home most of the ninety years of her life.

With her two sisters, Mrs. Z.D. Bucher and Miss Harriet N. Douglas, she founded and conducted for many years the Washington Collegiate Institute for Young Ladies, which will be remembered by many Washingtonians.

Miss Douglas leaves a brother, James Espy Douglas, and a sister, Mrs. Alexander D. Moore, widow of Rev. Alexander D. Moore of Philadelphia.
