

William C. Dredge

(- 5 Jul 1907)

Dredge. Suddenly, on Friday, July 5, 1907, William C., husband of the late Alice E. Dredge, in the fifty-sixth year of his age. Funeral on Monday, July 8, at 4 p. m., at the Chapel of Adolph J. Schippert, 2008 Pennsylvania avenue northwest. Relatives invited; funeral private.
[Washington Post, Monday, July 8, 1907]

The Evening Star, July 9, 1907, p. 16

Funeral of William C. Dredge

The funeral of William C. Dredge, who died at the Casualty Hospital Friday evening from injuries received from being thrown from a streetcar at 1st and C streets northwest last week, took place yesterday afternoon from Shippert's undertaking establishment, 18th street and Pennsylvania avenue northwest, at 4 o'clock. Rev. Dr. George Bailey, pastor of the Western Presbyterian Church, conducted the services. The interment was in Congressional Cemetery.