Attorney to Be Buried Tomorrow Morning in Congressional Cemetery

Vedantus R. Edwards, 93-year-old attorney, who died Wednesday night at his late home at 2200 Nineteenth street northwest, after a brief illness, will be buried tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock in the Congressional Cemetery. The Rev. James Shera Montgomery will officiate.

Edwards had lived in the District since 1868, when he married and moved here from Indiana. He was a member of the bar of the United States Supreme Court and the Court of Claims and was in active practice until two weeks ago.

He was a member of the Harvard Law Club of Washington. He is survived by two daughters, Miss Grace Edwards and Miss Faith Edwards; and two sons, Clifton V. Edwards and Deltus M. Edwards.
