

Hattie E. Ege

( - 15 Jan 1939)

---

Ege, Hattie E. On Sunday, January 15, 1939 at her residence, 2123 Eye st. n.w., Hattie E. Ege (nee Hauptman) aged 77 years, widow of Porter F. Ege and mother of Philip A. Ege and Mrs. Addie E. Irish. Remains resting at George W. Wise funeral home, 2900 M street n.w. where the funeral services will be held Wednesday, January 18 at 3 p.m. Interment Congressional Cemetery.

The Evening Star, January 16, 1939, p. A10

Mrs. Hattie Ege, Pioneer Phone Operator, Dies

Mrs. Hattie Estelle Ege, 77, a lifelong resident of this city who was among the pioneer telephone operators here, died yesterday at her home, 2123 I street .W., after an illness of about a week.

Funeral services will be held at 2 p.m. Wednesday at the Wise funeral home, 2900 M street N.W. Burial will be in Congressional Cemetery.

Mrs. Ege, a former employe of the Chesapeake & Potomac Telephone Co., was the widow of Porter E. Ege, who died last May. She is survived by a son, Philip H. Ege, Arlington, Va.; a daughter, Mrs. Addie A. Irish, and three sisters, Mrs. Helen Raub, Mrs. Mary M. King and Mrs. Annie Peek, all of this city, and four grandchildren.

The Washington Post, January 16, 1939, p. 3

Mrs. Ege Dies; Rites Wednesday

Last rites for Mrs. Hattie Estelle Ege, 77, a lifelong resident of Washington, who died yesterday at her home, 2123 I street northwest, will be held at 2 p.m. Wednesday at the Wise funeral home, 2900 M street northwest. Burial will be in Congressional Cemetery.

Mrs. Ege was a former employe of the Chesapeake & Potomac Telephone Co. She leaves a son, Philip H. Ege, accountant for the experimental farm of the Department of Agriculture at Alcovia, Va.; a daughter, Mrs. Addie A. Irish, and three sisters, Mrs. Helen Raub, Mrs. Mary M. King and Mrs. Annie Peek, all of Washington.