

Victor Ehle

(- 30 Sep 1881)

Ehle. On Friday, September 30, 1881, at 20 minutes past 9 o'clock p.m., of typhoid fever, Victor, eldest son of J.N. and L.M. Ehle, aged 9 years and 3 days.

A light from our household has gone;

A voice that we loved is stilled;

A place is vacant at our hearth,

Which never can be filled.

Funeral services from Metropolitan Presbyterian Church, (Dr. Chester's) tomorrow, (Sunday) at four o'clock p.m. Relatives and friends respectfully invited to attend. (Frederick county, Md., and Rock county, Wisconsin, papers please copy).

The Evening Star, October 1, 1881

Locals

The friends of Mr. and Mrs. Ehle will sympathize with them in the death of their bright little boy. Death indeed loves a shining mark when such a promising child is summoned to his final home.