Mrs. Alice L. Ellis Dies

Former Philadelphian Resident Here for Half a Century

Mrs. Alice L. Ellis, 79, widow of Dornin Ellis, died at a local hospital Sunday after a prolonged illness.

Mrs. Ellis, formerly of Philadelphia, has been a resident of Washington since her marriage, about a half century.

She is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Adelaide E. Grant of the Wardman Park Hotel, and a son, Lemuel Ellis of Los Angeles, and two grandchildren.

The services for the deceased took place this afternoon at the Almus R. Speare's funeral parlors, 1623 Connecticut avenue. Rev. Moses R. Lovell of the Mount Pleasant Congregational Church officiated. Interment was in Congressional Cemetery.
