

Millard F. Ellis

(- 20 Jul 1924)

Ellis. Departed this life Sunday, July 20, 1924, Millard F. Ellis, husband of Evelyn Ellis, 355 Dick st., Fayetteville, N.C.; son of George W. Ellis and the late Clara Ellis. Funeral from residence of Otto Williams, 215 F st. n.e., at 11 a.m., July 23.

Greensboro Record, July 21, 1924, p. 5

Drowned

Fayettesville, July 21 – Millard F. Ellis, 22, motion picture operator of this city was drowned in Beaver Lake six miles west of here last night when he rocked the boat in which he with Worth and John Campbell were rowing.

John Campbell saved his brother, Worth, who could not swim, and called to Ellis to hold to the overturned boat until he could return for him. However, when Campbell came back to the boat, Ellis had gone under.