

Vernon E. Etzler

(- 16 May 1924)

Etzler. Thursday, May 15, 1924, at his residence, 207 6th st. n.e., Vernon E., beloved husband of Elizabeth Roe Etzler. Services will be held at his late residence, Monday, May 19, at 3 pm. Relatives and friends invited to attend. Interment (private) in Congressional cemetery.

The Evening Star, May 17, 1924, p. 4

Long Illness At End

Vernon E. Etzler, War Department Employee 25 Years, Dead

Vernon E. Etzler, son of the late Archibald and Ann L. Etzler, and for twenty-five years an employe in the War Department, died Thursday evening at his home, 207 6th street northeast, after an illness of several years. Funeral services will be held at his late residence, Monday, at 3 p.m. Burial will be in Congressional cemetery.

Mr. Etzler was a native of Frederick, Md., and came to Washington with his parents forty-five years ago. He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Elizabeth Roe Etzler, three sons and two daughters; his mother, Mrs. Ann L. Etzler; two sisters, Mrs. Samuel R. and Mrs. J. Frank Campbell, and a brother, Harry A. Etzler.

The Washington Post, May 17, 1924, p. 5

Rites for Vernon E. Etzler

Vernon E. Etzler, for more than 20 years an employe of the State, War and Navy building, died yesterday at his home, 207 Sixth street northeast. He was foreman of painters in the building. Mr. Etzler is survived by his widow, Elizabeth Roe Etzler.

Funeral services will be conducted at his home Monday at 3 o'clock. Burial will be private in Congressional cemetery.