

Walter Eugene Fisher

( - 3 Mar 1928)

---

Fisher. Suddenly, on Saturday, March 3, 1928, Walter E., of Neabsco, Va., oldest son of the late Capt. Marvin P. and Mary E. Fisher. Funeral Tuesday, March 6, at 1 p.m., from Lee's chapel, 332 Pennsylvania ave. n.w.

The Evening Star, March 4, 1928, p. 5

Man, 77, Dies In Fall

Virginian Found Dead Below Apartment Window

Walter Eugene Fisher, 77 years old, of Neabsco, Va., was found dead in an areaway beside the apartment building at 1444 W street last night. Relatives told police he had been suffering from a nervous trouble and had either fallen or jumped from a third floor window. He was dead when examined by Dr. I Rutkowski of Emergency Hospital, who said the man had apparently died of a broken neck. Fisher was single and had lived at Neabsco all his life, police were told.

He had come to Washington from his home yesterday to visit his sister, Miss Harriett Fisher, who lives at 1444 W street. Coroner Nevitt was notified.