

William S. Fisher

( - 5 Jan 1913)

---

Fisher. Suddenly on Sunday, January 5, 1913 at 9 a.m., William S. son of the late Capt. Marvin P. and Mary E. Fisher. Funeral service at St. James P.E. Church, 8th street between B and C street northeast on Tuesday, January 7 at 9:30 a.m. Relatives and friends invited to attend.

The Evening Star, January 6, 1913, p. 18

William S. Fisher Dead

Florist Had Served at Botanic Garden and White House

William S. Fisher, a florist, for a number of years an employee of J.H. Small & Sons, and previously at the Botanic Garden and the White House, died suddenly yesterday morning at 9 o'clock.

Mr. Fisher was about fifty-four years old, and was well known in South Washington, where his father and mother, Capt. Marvin P. and Mrs. Mary E. Fisher, lived for a number of years. Both parents are dead. Two sisters, Misses Hattie Y. and Mattie Fisher, survive.

Funeral services will be held at St. James' P.E. Church, 8th street between B and C streets northeast, at 9:30 o'clock tomorrow morning.

The National Intelligencer, January 7, 1913, p. 3

William S. Fisher Dead

Funeral Services This Morning at St. James' P.E. Church

William S. Fisher, formerly connected with the National Botanic Garden and later with the White House gardening staff, died suddenly Sunday morning at his home, 1135 9th street northwest.

Funeral services were held at 9:30 o'clock this morning at St. James' P.E. Church, 8th street between B and C streets northeast. Mr. Fisher is survived by two sisters, Misses Hattie V. and Mattie Fisher.