

Estelle Fleischmann

(- 30 Dec 1909)

The Evening Star, December 31, 1909, p. 16

Death Due to Suffocation

Eleanora Fleishman, seven months old, died yesterday at the home of her parents, 122 E street southeast. Her death was due to suffocation, the child having turned on her face and did not have strength enough to get in a position which would enable her to get air enough to save her life. Coroner Nevitt made an investigation and gave the necessary certificate of death.