

Fannie R. Fleming (- 8 Apr 1924)

Fleming. Tuesday, April 8, 1924, at her residence, the Congressional apartments, Fannie R., widow of John S. Fleming, mother of Dudley W. and George E. Fleming. Funeral Thursday, April 10, at 3 p.m., from Metropolitan Presbyterian Church, 4th and B sts. s.e.

The Evening Star, April 9, 1924, p. 7

Mrs. F.R. Fleming Dies

Member of D.A.R. Lived in Capital Fifty Years

Mrs. Frances R. Fleming, eighty three years old, a member of the Daughters of the American Revolution and a resident of this city the last fifty years, died at her residence in the Congressional apartments yesterday.

Funeral services will be held at the Metropolitan Presbyterian Church, 4th and B streets southeast, tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock. Rev. Dr. Paul R. Hickok will officiate, assisted by Rev. Freely Rohrer. Interment will be in Congressional cemetery.

Mrs. Fleming was a native of Indiana. She was the widow of John S. Fleming. She is survived by two sons, Dudley W. and George E. Fleming, both of this city.