Death of Mrs. Frank

Aged Resident of the District Passes Away

Mrs. A.E. Frank, aged 81 years, wife of A.J. Frank, one of the oldest residents of this city, died this morning at her home, No. 317 G street southeast, after a long illness. She was born in Alexandria when that city was a part of the District of Columbia. Early in life she moved to this side of the river and has since lived here. She was married in 1836, and her husband, who is now 86 years old, is an invalid. Her funeral will take place at 2 o'clock Wednesday afternoon from the Second Baptist Church, corner of Virginia avenue and 4th street southeast. Three children survive her. They are Mrs. Lowe, Mr. J.A. Frank, sanitary officer of the District, and Mr. James Frank, clerk in the fifth precinct police station.
