Alexander H. Galt Claimed By Death

Brother-in-Law of Mrs. Woodrow Wilson Was Connected With R.F.C.

Alexander Hunter Galt, brother-in-law of Mrs. Edith Galt Wilson, widow of President Woodrow Wilson, died early today at his residence, 2210 California street.

A special reporter to the Governing Board of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation, Mr. Galt had not been ill, but was stricken in his sleep, presumably with a heart attack.

A native of Washington, Mr. Galt was a cousin of Normal Galt, the jeweler, who was Mrs. Wilson's first husband, and married Gertrude Bolling, Mrs. Wilson's sister.

He devoted much of his time to the study of church music and was a member of St. Alban's Choir at the time of his death.

Besides his widow, Mr. Galt is survived by a son, Alexander Hunter Galt, jr.

Funeral services will be held tomorrow at 3 p.m. At St. Alban's Church. Burial will be in Congressional Cemetery.
