The Evening Star, December 27, 1880

Mr. Sterling Galt, long associated with the Messrs. Galt, jewelers, died yesterday morning, after a lingering illness, at the residence of his brother, on 9th street, near B. Mr. Galt was in his 45th year and was the youngest of the brothers, and although not a member of the firm, he had been connected with their establishment during his life. He had been in bad health for many years and about two years ago had a slight attack of paralysis from the effects of which he never fully recovered. His funeral will take place tomorrow morning at 11 o'clock from No. 720 9th street. He was an upright man and a good citizen.
