

Robert E. Garrison

( - 7 Oct 1907)

---

The Evening Star, October 8, 1907, p. 16

Death Due to Heart Disease

Robert Garrison, twenty-two years old, died last night at the Emergency Hospital. He had been taken there from 430 8th street northwest. Garrison, who lived at 1104 E street northwest, fell upon the steps in front of a saloon on 8th street and received painful injuries. His death, it is stated, was due to heart disease, and not to the effects of the fall, and the necessary certificate of death was given.